Examiners of the Oberlin Bank Will Make No Statement As to the Nature of the Security Left By Mrs. Cassie Chadwick.

Cleveland, O., Dec. 2.—The Cleveland Leader Thursday night offered its columns to Mrs. Chadwick if she cared to make a statement. Mrs. Chadwick, replying from New York, sent the following message:

"Thanks for telegram offering free use of your paper for statement. I will pay every dollar I owe. Regret exceedingly that so much groundless gossip has without any fault of mine caused so much trouble to others. You are at liberty to use this. Cassie L. Chadwick."

Oberlin, O., Dec. 2.—The directors and officers of the Citizens' National bank of this city which is now in the hands of government examiners, have decided that there is more safety for the depositors and creditors concerning the affairs of the bank and its prospects in secrecy and hereafter will have less to say for publication. The nature of the security left by Mrs. Chadwick has not been made public. The bank examiners would make no statement of the result of their findings.

President Beckwith Cheerful.

President Beckwith, of the Citizens' National bank, is still confined to his bed at home. He was more cheerful Thursday than heretofore. He received another telegram Thursday but would make no statement as to where or who it was from.

President Beckwith said that he had been talking too much regarding the bank's affairs and he announced that he would have less to say from now on. No more newspaper men will be admitted to his home until further notice.

Relative to the $75,000 loan which had been made by Oberlin college, President Beckwith said that the loan was not made either by himself or the bank, but that he was instrumental in having the loan made.

The Newton Loan Claim.

New York, Dec. 2.—George Ryall, local counsel for Herbert D. Newton, Thursday night made a statement that the settlement agreed upon with Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, of Cleveland, is for the payment in cash of Mr. Newton's entire claim. The payment, he said, is to be made either this week or early next week.

"No securities have been given for this payment," he added, "but we are sure it will be made."

In reference to the statement made Thursday afternoon by Edmund W. Powers, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, that of the amount claimed by Mr. Newton, $65,000 represented notes given for bonuses, Mr. Ryall said: "Mr. Powers is mistaken in his figures. The notes he refers to do not represent bonuses. The settlement is upon our full claim of $190,800."

Another ordinance was adopted authorizing the mayor to execute and issue 20 bonds of the city of Lexington on the same terms and conditions for the construction of a new auditorium in Woodland park, recently acquired by the city.

Both bond issues are to be dated February 1, 1905, and were ordered by popular vote at the recent election.

In joint session W. H. McCorkle, the well-known turfman and former owner of the race mare, Barouche, was elected delinquent tax collector to succeed James Gleason, whose term had expired.

A GALLANT WEAVER.

He Saved the Lives of Thirty-Five Girls in Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 2.—Friction in a cording machine caused a fire which damaged to the extent of $17,000 the Beargrass woolen mills, in Garden, between Chestnut and Madison streets, Thursday. Thirty-five girls escaped suffocation by climbing down a ladder from the second floor. Thomas Pickcuff, a weaver, prevented the panic-stricken young women from jumping by guiding them to the fire escape. Miss Treacy Quincy, employed in the assorting room, on the third floor, was overcome by smoke and heat, but was rescued. The loss is fully covered by insurance.

THE BIG FAIR ENDS.

From Its Inception Until the Opening of the Gates Occupied a Period of Seven Years.

DURATION OF FAIR SEVEN MONTHS

It Comprised the Most Representative Collection of Resources, Industries, Art and Peoples Ever Assembled.

The Closing Exercises Were Held at the Base of the Louisiana Purchase Monument in the Plaza of St. Louis.

St. Louis, Dec. 2.—The Louisiana Purchase exposition has ended. The stupendous and magnificent exposition, interest of which has extended into every portion of the civilized world, has run its course and now passes into history as probably having comprised the most representative collection of the resources, industries, art, peoples and customs of the world ever assembled. From the inception of the project to hold the exposition, until the gates were thrown open and the world was invited to enter, occupied a period of seven years. The duration of the exposition has been seven months, and during that time nothing has occurred to throw a dampening effect on the interest or to distract from the exposition in any way. No loss of life has occurred during the exposition from accidents. St. Louis has proffered her most gracious hospitality to the world and it has been accepted.

Farewell Addresses.

The closing exercises were held at the base of the Louisiana Purchase monument in the plaza of St. Louis, where were held seven months ago the exercises that formally opened the gates to the world. On the opening day the vast assemblage was buoyant in spirit and filled with unanimous desire to give expression to good feeling; Thursday, depression prevailed generally because the conclusion was at hand and it was rather a mournful assemblage that formed a solid phalanx around the tall monument and listened to the farewell addresses. The principal speeches were delivered by Gov. Dockery, of Missouri, and President Francis. Mayor Wells spoke briefly and introduced Gov. Dockery.

The introduction of President Francis was greeted with an ovation of cheering. With bowed head President Francis received the plaudits of the multitude and when quiet had been restored he delivered his address.

After the cheering following Mr. Francis' speech had died away, Festus J. Wade, of St. Louis, a member of the board of directors, was introduced and presented to President Francis a beautiful silver service as a token of esteem from the exposition management.

A similar gift was presented to Treasurer William P. Thompson.

Exhibit Palaces Closed.

Promptly at 4 o'clock all the great exhibit palaces were closed and visitors were excluded.

As the night drew on throngs concentrated in the main avenues to view for the last time the magnificent electric illumination. One solid stream of humanity swept through the Pike, from end to end. The spirit of revelry was there. Never since the opening had more enlivenment been shown at night on the grounds.

Steadily the white electric bulbs silhouetted the exhibit palaces against the night, periodically the illumination of the terrace of state surmounting festival hall changed from white to red, then to green, and then back to white. Over on agricultural knoll, the great floral clock clicked off the minutes of the departing pageant. And in the night rang out the tones of the massive bell as the midnight hour was tolled by the great clock. Instantly a hush seemed to pervade the entire grounds. The glowing electric bulbs slowly began dimming, the pulsations of the great engines that drove the cascades gradually died down. The light faded steadily diminishing until but a faint glow was perceptible. Suddenly there was a darkness and the Louisiana Purchase exposition had passed into the chronicles of history.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The treasury statement of the government receipts and expenditures shows that the total receipts for the month of November, 1904, were $45,576,877, and the expenditures $49,697,547, leaving a deficiency for the month of $142,670.

The crews also rescued 103 persons not on board of vessels from various perilous situations and through signal warnings of the beach patrols saved from possible disaster 161 vessels in danger of stranding. The vessels wrecked were generally of small tonnage. The net expenditure for the maintenance of the service during the fiscal year was $1,766,446.

MARTIAL LAW MAY RULE.

Soldiers Have Been Sent Out to the Mine at Zeigler, Ill.

Zeigler, Ill., Dec. 2.—Firing began at 11:10 o'clock Thursday night in the direction of the company's pumping plant. The searchlight was flashed and the rapid-fire guns responded.

Soldiers have just been sent out. Martial law in the territory surrounding the fortified town of Zeigler seems to be the ultimate upshot of the strike developments of Wednesday night and Thursday. A gentleman who, for sufficient reason, does not authorize the use of his name, Thursday night was in Zeigler. He came from Springfield Thursday noon, and stated that it was certain that martial law would be in force no later than Friday.

PUBLIC DEBT STATEMENT.

There Was An Increase of $2,455,265 During the Month of November.

Simultaneously with this assault the correspondent says men of the Ninth and Eleventh divisions advanced and menaced the Rihlung and Kekwan forts. It is stated, the correspondent adds, that within the last 24 hours the Japanese casualties have totalled 15,000, and it is asserted that the attacks have been placed to continue until December 10, when, it is hoped, the capture of Port Arthur will be completed.

THE BALLOON BOAT

Dead Body of Peter Nissen, Who Attempted to Cross the Lake in It, Found.

THE HANDS AND FACE FROZEN.

It is Almost Certain That the Daring Man Practically Reached the Other Shore Alive.

A Note Found on the Body Says An Air Hose Upon Which He Depended to Renew His Supply of Air Had Broken.

Stevensville, Mich., Dec. 2.—Peter Nissen, who attempted to cross Lake Michigan in a balloon boat called "Fool Killer No. 3," was found dead on the beach, two miles and a half west of here Thursday. Nissen is supposed to have been washed ashore during the night. His "Fool Killer" was about 20 rods down the beach from the body and was considerably damaged. A life preserver and an overcoat were fastened to the basket-shaped car in the boat. The body was brought to Stevensville, where it lies in the town hall. The hands and face were frozen and the features reflected terrible suffering. The clothing on the body was somewhat torn. The body was found by Mrs. Collier, who lives on a farm near the lake shore.

It is almost certain that Nissen practically reached shore alive Wednesday about 4 o'clock, after he had been out of Chicago 24 hours. The "Fool Killer No. 3" was then seen about 200 rods from shore off Livingston, six miles south of Stevensville. A heavy gale was blowing and it is presumed he was unable to land and was probably tossed about up shore all night.

Unable to Save Himself.

It is believed that Nissen was either unconscious or so thoroughly chilled that he was unable to save himself when the "Fool Killer" finally collapsed, and that he was drowned.

When the wrecked aquatic balloon was examined one of Nissen's business cards was found on the back of which was a note from the dead adventurer saying an air hose upon which he depended to renew his supply of air had broken and that he was doomed to die of suffocation.

William Fuller, a farmer, saw the balloon boat being driven toward shore about 4 p. m. Wednesday three miles south of the place where Nissen's body was found Thursday. When Fuller sighted it the craft had apparently not as yet been broken up by the waves.

It is believed here that Nissen was alive when his boat first touched the eastern shore of the lake. There was a smile on the face of the dead navigator. His wrecked boat late Thursday was hauled into Stevensville and a coroner's jury was impaneled. The inquest was adjourned for further investigation.

WEATHER FORECAST.

Rain,
Turning to snow
and much Colder,
With a Cold Wave.

The Court of Appeals has decided in favor of Judge Bennett in the Ninth district Congressional election case and we suppose the matter is settled. Without knowing Mr. Kehoe's intentions, we can't think he would have the hardihood to contest the matter further. He put up a game fight for the party and carried it to a finish, and while he thinks he won fairly, the courts have decided otherwise.

The BULLETIN has no apologies to make for the stand it has taken in the matter. It did all in its humble power to win success for our fellow-townsmen before and since the election, believing it was justified in its aggressive policy, and condemning the irregularities that gave his opponent the advantage.

"THE LINE IS BUSY."

Adaptability of the Telephone to the Varied Needs of Country Life.

The advent of the telephone in the rural districts might have been expected to introduce an element of freshness and variety into the monotony of farm life. But some of the uses to which this instrument has been adapted by ingenious farm women surely go beyond the pleasant anticipations of its inventor says a writer in the Youth's Companion.

In many of the counties in the Middle West the telephone has become so popular that there is one in most every farm house. Many instances attest the adaptability of the instrument to the varied needs of country life. One old lady of well known sociability was found by a chance caller sitting pleasantly at her knitting, and wearing what at first appeared to be some curious head-gear, but what, on a closer view, was seen to be the telephone receiver fixed to her head by an old hatband. All the telephone subscribers on the road were on a single line, and the old lady's ear was "hitched" to all the private news of the countryside.

In another instance a young mother, finding it necessary to go to a neighboring farm on household business, took down the receiver and laid it near her sleeping infant, and requested "Central" to "Ring me up at Mrs. Hall's if you hear the baby cry."

A physician, making a country call, found himself in want of something he had left in town. He went to the farmer's telephone to request that it be sent to him. As he did so the unmistakable click of the receiver hooks could be heard all along the line. In closing his conversation the doctor said:

"Now you may all hang up your receivers."

AWFUL TRAGEDY.

Fourteen Year Old Boy Killed a Playmate With a Shotgun in Robertson County.

A distressing accident is reported from Piqua, Robertson County. Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock Floyd Wells, aged about fourteen years, shot and killed Luther Wright, a lad of the same age.

The facts in regard to the killing are as follows: The Wells boy was at the home of Wright. The latter was engaged in playing a fiddle, when the other boy picked up a gun lying on the bed and pointing it at Wright exclaimed: "I am going to shoot you." The gun was discharged, the load of shot tearing off all the back part of the victim's head. The shooting although totally uncalculated for is regarded as purely accidental.

On the same day in the same vicinity William Rankin, aged sixty years, was found dead in the yard of Alfred Bailey. He had left home about daylight. Mrs. Bailey had prepared early dinner and on going into the yard observed his feet above a bank. He was lying with his head down the bank with one hand in his pocket, indicating that death had been instantaneous. His body was perfectly rigid and he must have lain there since early in the day.

THE SCHEME FAILED.

Maysville Woman Tried to Work the Lost Ticket Racket in the Queen City.

A woman who claimed to be on her way to the bedside of a dying sister in Missouri tried to arouse sympathy and raise a fund at the Central Union Station, Cincinnati, the other day by telling a hard luck story of losing her ticket and purse.

The copious tears she shed wore great furrows in the cosmetics with which her face was smeared and her her plight seemed pitiful indeed. She was questioned so closely, however, that she finally lost her temper and admitted that she had told an untruth.

She said she was from Maysville, had quarreled with her husband and had run away from home. Realizing that she had made a mistake she was returning. She admitted that the story of losing her ticket and being robbed was a falsehood, and in proof of her statement purchased a ticket for this city. She declined to give her name.

A Devil's Lane.

Here's what a Danville paper says of the show that is to play here Saturday matinee and night. The item is not furnished by the local opera house management, but is clipped from Wednesday's issue of the Kentucky Advocate. If the reporter is as honest in his criticism as we think he should be, expect to see something out of the ordinary to-morrow afternoon and evening:

"A Devil's Lane," which played in this city Monday night, is probably the best show that has been here for years, and so many people have asked Major Lillard, the manager of the opera house, to arrange for a return date, that he is now corresponding with the company with a view to having them come again.

Ripley Bee: "Some farmers in this section have prepared and burnt their tobacco beds. The season has been very favorable for such work. They claim that this saves time and risk in the spring, as they will not have to depend on the weather then to get ready, but only will have to loosen the soil and plant the seed when the time comes. This is overlapping the crops and keeps the farmer busy on tobacco all the year 'round."

Mr. Clarence L. Stanton, formerly editor of the BULLETIN, but who now has a nice position with the National Biscuit Company, wears the Cross of Honor of the Southern Confederacy, which shows he saw service from Charleston to Appomattox. Besides this long record he saw hard fighting in varied forms as he served in the cavalry, infantry, artillery and navy. He takes additional pride in the cross because it was blessed by the late Archbishop Elder of Cincinnati when he was Bishop of Natchez.

JOHN I. WINTER,

MAYSVILLE, KY

THE DEATH LIST.

Venerable Mrs. Catherine Weaver and Others Pass to the Great Beyond.

Mrs. Catherine Weaver, who has been very ill for six weeks, died last afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Dinger of South Short street, death resulting more from the infirmities of age than from disease.

She was eighty-three years old, was born in Germany, but has made her home here since early womanhood.

Deceased is survived by seven daughters and four sons, who live at Cincinnati, Newport and this city.

She was a member of the German Lutheran Church and the funeral will no doubt take place from there, though arrangements had not been completed this morning.

CHARLES O'HEARN.

A telegram from John O'Hearn to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Hearn of Aberdeen, brings the sad news of the accidental killing of his brother Charles. He gave no particulars, but as both are employed in a rolling mill at Joliet, Ill., it is supposed he met his death there. The remains were sent home for burial.

MRS. NANNIE LEE HEASOM, wife of Mr. Harry C. Heasom, died in Cincinnati at 12:15 a. m. November 29, aged thirty-four years. Funeral services were held at the residence in Brooksville, Ind., Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. W. Mitchell of Covington.

FREDDIE NICHOLS.

Freddie, the little son of Willard Nichols of Russell died Thursday. His remains will be brought here to-day and the funeral will take place to-morrow.

LOST SON FOUND.

A Bracken County Boy, Long Mourned For Dead, Turns Up in Illinois.

A man giving his name as Harry McLain, and claiming to be the son of County Clerk H. T. McLain, of Bracken County, had himself arrested at Belleville, Ill., on the charge of vagrancy so that he might have a place to stay during the winter.

McLain told the Sheriff at Belleville that his father was an official in Bracken County, and the Sheriff communicated with Mr. McLain with the result that the young man will soon be on his way home.

Mr. McLain replied to the Sheriff that he had mourned his son for dead for several years and was surprised to find that he was still living. When the family last heard from him it was five years ago, and he was then in Kansas City.

Mr. Albert Diener has opened a meat market at Portsmouth.

Arrange to attend the bazar given by the ladies of the Central Presbyterian Church December 8th and 9th.

The appellant in the suit of Williams versus the Maysville Telephone Company filed a petition for rehearing in the Court of Appeals.

J. T. Kackley & Co. are placing on display the most artistic line of holiday goods ever shown by them. Their pictures excel anything of the kind ever seen here. Books, novelties, games and toys they have in abundance.

Thomas Lowry, the fellow who "cracked down" on Billy Varian's big sparkler a spell back, has been admitted to bail in the sum of $500. It will be remembered that he was sentenced to ten years in the pen for the job, but the case was sent back for a rehearing.

Dover News: "The phenomenal majority given Mr. Mackey in the Dover precinct was due wholly to the popularity of Mr. W. H. Mackey, who is the present Deputy Sheriff and who will be Deputy under Mr. Mackey. This is Mr. Mackey's home precinct and he should be and is proud of the high esteem in which he is held by the voters and citizens in general."

The residence of Superintendent of Schools C. D. Wells of Bernard took fire last night about 9 o'clock, but was saved by the hard work of the family and neighbors. Fortunately there was a small pond of water nearby, which afforded material to fight the fire, else the loss would have been complete. The flames were communicated to the dwelling from a cabin, where employees were rendering aid. The outbuilding was burned, as was also a lot of meat.

ECONOMY

Is invariably the result when in buying eatables you buy the best. Never buy anything to eat when not good because it looks cheap. It is dear at any price. In these days of adulteration and low priced foods it becomes the duty of every one to scan closely what he buys and reject everything of a suspicious character. In order to be on the safe side always buy of the experienced dealer who knows the good from the bad and who will not handle impure and poisonous goods. I am now opening an unusually large and most attractive stock of high grade goods for the fall and winter trade.

New Crop New Orleans Molasses

direct from the plantation to the consumer. No better made. FINEST SORGHUM ever sold in Maysville. The only trouble is in getting as much of it as I can sell. My stock of CANNED GOODS is immense—bought direct from the packers. When prices were very much lower than they are now I bought heavily of Green Coffee and am in position to name very attractive prices on either green or roasted goods. I get in each week a supply of freshly roasted goods from the roasting house in New York where I have my Coffees for roasting stored, and can sell you better Coffees at 15, 20 and 25 cents than others sell at 20, 25 and 30 cents. My stock of Teas—green and black is always full and complete.

PERFECTION FLOUR

is the finest flour sold in Maysville. In fact it has no superior anywhere. My stock of Apples, Oranges, Lemons, Bananas, Figs, Citron, Orange and Lemon Peel, Dates, Raisins, Almonds, Mince Meat and Plum Pudding, Prunes, Buckwheat Flour, Maple Syrup, White Clover Honey, Cereals of all kinds, Hominy, Beans &c. of the very best. Ladenburger's Crab Cider, Baltimore Oysters in bulk and cans, Celery, Cranberries, Poultry and Game, in fact everything good to eat of the very best. Look out for my holiday special and when you come to our city you are specially invited to make my house your headquarters. Remember, I buy all kinds of country produce such as Butter, Eggs, Poultry, Game &c. Will buy one hundred extra cured old Country Hams in weight from ten to fifteen pounds each.

Mr. Henry Bertram, boots and shoes, of 225 Market street, says: "The great value of Doan's Kidney Pills are quickly proven. I procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, corner of West Second and Market street. In a very short time I was cured of backache which had troubled me for some time. I gave some to a friend who suffered greatly from kidney ailments and he said the results obtained from their use proved that Doan's Kidney Pills are a preparation which possesses remarkable value."

WELLS & COUGHLIN

Professor H. Garman of the State College has discovered, so far as he knows, the only variety of apple ever originated in Kentucky. It is called "Fall Beauty," and is a seedling. It is a light red, striped with a darker red and speckled with gold. Its taste is delightful, for it is mellow, and neither acid nor sweet. This apple is the product of years of patient work of a nurseryman in Hickman County.
